

A hearing of the Discipline Committee of the New Brunswick Association of Social Workers was held on April 22, 2022 to hear and determine a Complaint against a Member alleging professional misconduct.

Specifically, the Member is alleged of not following workplace standards and practices regarding case recording and file documentation.

Before the Discipline Committee, the Member voluntarily admitted professional misconduct and concurred that disciplinary sanction was appropriate.

Following a determination that the Member was guilty of professional misconduct, the Discipline Committee imposed the following discipline sanctions:

1. Written reprimand to be placed in the Member's file for a period of one year;
2. Payment of costs of $500.00
3. Attend a webinar in the form of continuing professional education
4. One assignment in the form of continuing education article; and
5. Summary and publication of the proceeding without names for the education of the membership.
